

We strongly oppose any further relaxing of media ownership rules, and in fact would urge re-regulation. Lack of diversity of media ownership has led to a severe restriction of voices heard in the public arena which has been and continues to be very damaging to the health of our democracy.